A SEASON FOR THE AGES

◆ North Carolina's women's lacrosse team posted its greatest season yet in 2016, winning the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season title with a perfect, 7-0 record, winning the ACC Tournament and capturing the NCAA championship along the way.

◆ Third-seeded Carolina (20-2) won its second NCAA championship when it beat top-seeded Maryland (22-1) at Talen Energy Stadium in Chester, Pa., in the national final on May 29, 2016.

◆ Carolina and Maryland were meeting in the national title game for the third time in four years. In 2013, the Tar Heels beat the Terrapins in triple overtime for the NCAA championship. In 2015, Maryland beat UNC, 9-8. Carolina got its second title with a dominant, 13-7 win in 2016.

◆ UNC also won its second ACC title, sweeping to the championship with wins over Virginia Tech, Duke and Syracuse in Blacksburg, Va. The Tar Heels went 7-0 in the ACC regular season.

WINNING STREAK

◆ The Tar Heels closed the 2015 season with 17 consecutive victories, the longest winning streak in program history. UNC last lost on Feb. 27 and went undefeated in the months of March, April and May.

◆ The previous program record was a 15-game winning streak by the Tar Heels in 2013-14 (the last four games of the 2013 national title run and the first 11 games of 2014).

◆ Carolina also has won seven consecutive games decided by one goal after losing back-to-back, one-goal decisions to Florida and Maryland in late February.

SCHOOL RECORD FOR WINS

◆ Carolina's win over Maryland in the NCAA semifinal was its 20th of the season, a new program record for wins in a season.

◆ The NCAA champion Tar Heels in 2013 won 18 games (18-3). UNC also won 18 games in 2015 (18-4).

RETURNING TO THE FINAL FOUR IN PHILLY

◆ Carolina returned to the NCAA Final Four in the Philadelphia area for the third time in four years (2013 in Villanova, 2015 and 2016 in Chester).

◆ UNC recaptured more of its success from three years ago, when the Tar Heels won the 2013 national title in Villanova. That year, third-seeded Carolina beat second-seeded Northwestern and top-seeded Maryland to win the first championship in program history.

◆ Seven players from the 2013 national championship team were still active on the UNC roster in 2016 as seniors, including five who played in the title game vs. Maryland (title-game starters Mallory Frysinger, Aly Messinger and Megan Ward and reserves Kelly Devlin and Sammy Jo Tracy).

PHILLY HOMECOMING FOR EIGHT TAR HEELS

◆ Nine 2016 Tar Heels are from the Philadelphia area or the nearby vicinity, including five from Pennsylvania and four from nearby parts of New Jersey:

- Alyssa Andress (Doylestown, Pa.)
- Kelly Devlin (Downingtown, Pa.)
- Molly Hendrick (Lancaster, Pa.)
- Stephanie Lobb (West Chester, Pa.)
- Sophie McCoy (Kennett Square, Pa.)

- Gianna Bowe (Mullica Hill, N.J.)
- Devin Markison (Princeton, N.J.)
- Marie McCool (Moorestown, N.J.)
- Alex Moore (Millstone Township, N.J.)

RECENTLY IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

- ◆ The Tar Heels are 20-6 in the NCAA Tournament since 2009
- ◆ The 2016 UNC senior class went 12-2 in the NCAA Tournament, made three appearances in the national title game and won the 2013 and 2016 NCAA championships.
- ◆ In its last eight NCAA Tournament appearances, Carolina has:

CAROLINA'S NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

◆ UNC is 29-16 all-time in NCAA Tournament games and has made nine semifinal appearances (1997, 1998, 2002, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015, 2016), including six in the last eight years.

◆ The Tar Heels are 2-2 in NCAA championship games, beating Maryland in 2013 and 2016, losing to Northwestern in 2009 and losing to Maryland in 2015.

◆ Carolina is 4-5 in NCAA semifinal games (with wins in 2009, 2013, 2015 and 2016). UNC has won three consecutive NCAA semifinals (2013, 2015, 2016).

◆ Head coach Jenny Levy has led Carolina to 18 NCAA Tournament berths, including 12 in a row.

◆ Levy's 29 NCAA Tournament wins are fourth in the history of the sport.

◆ Carolina is 20-2 at home in NCAA Tournament games, losing only in 2000 to Loyola and in 2014 to Virginia. UNC has won 19 of its last 20 home NCAA Tournament games.

◆ The Tar Heels are 9-8 in NCAA Tournament quarterfinal games and have won six of their last eight quarterfinals.

◆ Carolina is 8-2 in quarterfinal games played in Chapel Hill. The Tar Heels are 1-6 in NCAA quarterfinal appearances played on the road.

◆ UNC is 14-1 with 14 consecutive wins in the NCAA Tournament second round.

◆ Carolina in 2016 made its 18th NCAA appearance in 21 years as a varsity program (since 1996).

◆ UNC in 2016 was a top-five seed in the NCAA Tournament for the eighth year in a row.

FIVE TAR HEELS NAMED ALL-AMERICA BY IWLCA

◆ Five Tar Heels have earned All-America honors from the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association, the IWLCA announced on May 18.

◆ Molly Hendrick and Marie McCool earned first-team honors, while Mallory Frysinger, Aly Messinger and Sammy Jo Tracy grabbed second-team accolades.

SIX NAMED ALL-SOUTH

◆ Six Tar Heels earned All-South honors from the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association, the IWLCA announced on May 13.

◆ Senior defender Mallory Frysinger, junior attacker Molly Hendrick, sophomore midfielder Marie McCool, senior attacker Aly Messinger and senior attacker Sammy Jo Tracy earned first-team honors. Senior goalie Megan Ward was on the second team.

McCOOL, HENDRICK ARE TEWAARATON NOMINEES

◆ The Tewaaraton Foundation announced the 25 women's nominees for the 2016 Tewaaraton Award in late April, and the list includes North Carolina's Molly Hendrick and Marie McCool.

◆ The Tewaaraton Award is recognized as the pre-eminent lacrosse award, annually honoring the top male and female college lacrosse player in the United States.

◆ Five women's finalists will be invited to the 16th annual Tewaaraton Award Ceremony, to be held on June 2 in Washington, D.C., at the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of the American Indian.

SIX TAR HEELS LEAD ALL-ACC TEAM

◆ A league-high six Carolina players earned spots on the 2016 All-ACC teams. UNC led the conference with four first-team choices and six total selections.

◆ Junior attacker Molly Hendrick, senior attacker Sammy Jo Tracy, sophomore midfielder Marie McCool and senior defender Mallory Frysinger all made the first team. Senior attacker Aly Messinger and junior goalie Caylee Waters made the second team.

LEVY NAMED ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

◆ Jenny Levy is the 2016 Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Lacrosse Coach of the Year, the conference announced on May 5. Levy and her staff win the award for a fourth time, having earned the honor in 1997, 2002 and 2010 as well.

◆ Levy and assistants Phil Barnes, Katrina Dowd and Taylor Chumney Scotton led the Tar Heels to the ACC Tournament championship and the NCAA championship game this spring.

ACC TOURNAMENT CHAMPS

◆ Carolina won its second Atlantic Coast Conference championship on May 1 with a 15-14 overtime win over Syracuse. UNC also won the ACC title in 2002.

◆ The Tar Heels won this year's championship with a 19-6 win over Virginia Tech in the quarterfinals, a 7-6 win over Duke in the semifinals and the overtime win over Syracuse in the final.

◆ Marie McCool was named ACC Tournament MVP and was joined on the All-ACC Tournament team by Mallory Frysinger, Molly Hendrick, Carly Reed and Megan Ward.

TAR HEELS WIN ACC REGULAR SEASON TITLE

◆ Carolina is the ACC regular season champion for the second year in a row and the seventh time overall: 1998 (outright), 2000 (tie), 2006 (tie), 2010 (tie), 2012 (outright), 2015 (outright) and 2016 (outright).

SIX TAR HEELS PICKED IN UWLX DRAFT

◆ Six former UNC players were selected in the inaugural United Women's Lacrosse League (UWLX) Draft, held on Wednesday night in Boston. The new league will include four teams: The Baltimore Ride, Boston Storm, Long Island Sound and Philadelphia Force.

◆ The six Tar Heels drafted include:

defender Jen Russell (UNC 2010, Boston Storm, 8th overall pick) went in the second round, followed by defender Kristen Carr (UNC '10, Baltimore Ride, 9th overall) in the third round, midfielder Kara Cannizzaro (UNC '13, Boston Storm, 16th overall) in the fourth round, attacker Becky Lynch (UNC '12, Philadelphia Force, 19th overall) in the fifth round, defender Sloane Serpe (UNC '14, Long Island Sound, 22nd overall) in the sixth round and midfielder Emily Garrity (UNC '13, Philadelphia Force, 35th overall) in the eighth round.

◆ Carolina's six players drafted tied as the second-highest figure of any school with Syracuse. Maryland led the way with eight. Northwestern had five and Florida had three. Eight schools (including the ACC's Boston College and Duke) had one each.

TRACY BREAKS UNC RECORD FOR DRAW CONTROLS

◆ Sammy Jo Tracy won a school-record 108 draws in 2016. She had eight draw controls in Carolina's win at Boston College on March 26, breaking the North Carolina single-season record.

◆ Sarah Scott had 75 draw controls in 2014, setting the previous program record.

SIX TAR HEELS LEAD

2016-17 U.S. NATIONAL TEAM

◆ Six current and former University of North Carolina players dot the roster of the 2016-17 U.S. National Team, most in the nation.

◆ The Tar Heels on the team include midfielder Laura Zimmerman (UNC '12), goalie Caylee Waters ('17) and four of the team's seven defenders in Kristen Carr ('10), Jen Russell ('10), Sloane Serpe ('14) and Courtney Waite ('15).

◆ Maryland also had six players on the team. Syracuse had five.

◆ Nine Tar Heels tried out for the squad, more than any school in the nation. Junior Maggie Bill, sophomore Marie McCool and attacker Becky Lynch ('12) did not make the team.

◆ Waters is one of four active college players on the roster and the youngest to make the team. She joined Maryland midfielder Taylor Cummings, Terp defender Alice Mercer and Syracuse's Kayla Treanor (all of whom were seniors in 2016).

MAGGIE BILL REDSHIRTS 2016 SEASON

◆ Junior Maggie Bill did not play in 2016 and redshirted the 2016 lacrosse season after also redshirting the 2015 soccer season for the Tar Heels. Bill continued to practice in both soccer and lacrosse and will return to competition in both sports in 2016-17.

ACC Coach of the Year

Jenny Levy

HEAD COACH

21 Seasons

With 21 seasons as a head coach at North Carolina under her belt, Jenny Levy is among the top coaches in women's lacrosse history. The owner of two national championships, she is the fourth-winningest coach in NCAA Division I women's lacrosse history and the fourth-winningest active coach in the nation.

She has led the Tar Heels to nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament semifinals, including six in the last eight years. Her 29 NCAA Tournament wins are fourth in NCAA history.

Levy is the fourth coach in women's lacrosse history to win an NCAA championship as a player (with Virginia in 1991) and as a head coach. She is the eighth coach to win multiple NCAA titles.

In 2016, UNC set a school record for most wins (20) and fewest losses (two) in a season, went 7-0 to win the ACC regular season and won the second ACC Tournament and NCAA Tournament titles in program history.

In 2013, Carolina beat defending national champion Northwestern 11-4 in an NCAA semifinal in Villanova, Pa., then bested top-ranked Maryland 13-12 in three overtimes for the title in one of the most thrilling games in the sport's history. She earned national-coach-of-the-year honors from Inside Lacrosse, the IWLCA and Lacrosse Magazine.

In 2013, the Tar Heels finished No. 1 in the nation on the field, winning the NCAA title. Paige Hanson put Carolina at the top in the classroom when she won the NCAA's Elite 89 Award for having the best grade point average of any player at the 2013 NCAA semifinals. Zoe Skinner won the Yearley Love Unsung Hero Award for her prolific community service efforts.

Former UNC players Kristen Carr, Amber Falcone and Jenn Russell won gold medals with the U.S. National Team at the 2013 World Cup. Six current and former Tar Heels dot the 2016-17 National Team, most of any school in the nation.

"Jenny is the reason our team is so close, talking to us whenever we need, bringing her kids to practice, and pushing us as a team; she treats us more like family than players," says 2013 Honda Award winner Kara Cannizzaro.

The only head coach in UNC women's lacrosse history and among the collegiate game's most noted figures, Levy built the Tar Heel program from scratch.

Levy has guided Carolina to 18 NCAA Tournament bids, nine NCAA Tournament semifinal appearances, two Atlantic Coast Conference titles and the 2013 and 2016 NCAA titles in her 21 seasons. She has been a mainstay on various NCAA, IWLCA and US Lacrosse national committees. She also is a four-time ACC Coach of the Year.

An outstanding women's lacrosse player at the University of Virginia from 1988-92 and an assistant field hockey and assistant women's lacrosse coach at Georgetown University from 1993-94, Levy was named as Carolina's first women's lacrosse coach in October 1994.

She is a 1992 graduate of the University of Virginia with a BA in rhetoric and communications and was a member of the U.S. National Team in 1992-93 and again in 1995. Levy (then known as Jenny Slingluff) played at UVa from 1988-1992. She led the Cavaliers to the 1991 NCAA championship, scoring three goals in the title game and five in the semifinal, leading to her selection as the tournament's Most Outstanding Attacker.

A two-time first-team All-America, Levy was named the 1992 NCAA Attacker of the Year. In 2002, she was named one of the top 50 players in ACC history.

She married Dan Levy of Baltimore, Md., in June 1998. Dan is a 1993 UNC graduate who played lacrosse at Carolina for four years, starting on the 1991 NCAA championship team. The couple has three children - Ryan (born in Jan. 2002), Alec (born in Sept. 2003) and Kathryn (born in July 2006).
